

SUSTAINABILITY

SUSTAINABILITY TOWN HALL WITH CONGRESSMAN HARRY MITCHELL

Friday, September 21, 2007

2:00 to 3:30 pm

Social with Refreshments: 3:30 to 4:00 pm

Old Main, Carson Ballroom

Arizona State University, Tempe campus

Please join us for a Sustainability Town Hall hosted by Congressman Harry Mitchell, featuring panelists from the Global Institute of Sustainability and the community discussing how universities, municipalities, businesses, and ordinary people can walk a common path toward sustainability.

MODERATOR

John D'Anna

Senior Editor, Valley & State, The Arizona Republic

INFUSING SUSTAINABILITY THROUGHOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Jonathan Fink

Director, Global Institute of Sustainability

University Sustainability Officer

STUDYING SUSTAINABILITY

Charles Redman

Director, School of Sustainability

SUSTAINABILITY AS AN ECONOMIC ENGINE

Jay Golden

Co-Director, National Center of Excellence, Global Institute of Sustainability

GREEN BUILDING IN THE CITY

Anthony Floyd

Green Building Manager, City of Scottsdale

REDUCING YOUR CARBON FOOTPRINT

Harvey Bryan

Professor, School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, School of Sustainability

For More Information : Doug Mings, Office of Congressman Harry E. Mitchell

Doug.Mings@mail.house.gov, 480-946-2411

Parking available in any of several visitor lots on campus or in any City of Tempe lots. The current charge is $2 per hour with a $8 maximum. The closest visitor lot to Old Main is the Fulton Center Parking Structure at University and College.

SUSTAINABILITY

TOWN HALL

TOWN HALL